

Attention Trafficking Witches

You Are Trespassing

This home has been consecrated to the Most Holy Trinity!

You have no right to come in this home!

If you proceed to go through a wall or door, walk into a room, or hang around;

If you curse me, my family, my family members, or my pets;

If you set bugs, flies, wasps, bees, or ants;

If you curse any of my household appliances, indoors or outdoors;

You agree to be punished by Almighty God immediately for your evil practices.

If you do not leave this home immediately, you give consent for Almighty God to punish you according to His will.

You relinquish any rights you have as a human being and damn yourself, submitting yourself to His authority from this second on.

Depart from here you diabolical witches and occult practitioners,

In the name of Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, my Savior!
